Let nothing disturb you,
Nothing frighten you.

Saint Rose of Lima Pray for us

A Prayer for Peace in Ukraine

Heavenly Father, Your Son taught us
"Blessed are the Peacemakers for they shall be called Children of God."

In this time of great worry, we fervently pray that Your Holy Spirit sustain all the people of Ukraine to be vigilant and dedicated to peace and justice. Grant their leaders wisdom and prudence. Yet, may they also have the strength and perseverance to defend their land from all adversity and foreign attacks. Help us all to live according to your Divine Will. O God, our Father, in the days to come, we beseech you to comfort the suffering, heal the wounded, and accept the souls of the faithful departed into Your Heavenly Kingdom. We ask also that the Most Holy Mother of God extend her blessed mantle of protection over our Ukraine. Amen.

Magnificent Mercy

"This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Of these I am the foremost."

1 Timothy 1:15

The magnitude of God's mercy can be one of the most awe-inspiring or one of the most scandalous facets of Christian belief.

We know the freedom that comes from acknowledging our weaknesses and failures. We may have even been reduced to tears as we receive forgiveness and find our rightful place in the household of our loving Father.

Yet we also know the temptation to hardheartness of the older brother, as found in today's parable (Luke 15:22-32).

Are we offended by the generosity of a God who offers mercy, even as the nails are driven through his hands? Can I imagine a life beyond this world that ended in redemption for the most notorious sinners?

St. Paul could because he counted himself among them.

What qualifications do I put on my mercy? Would I withhold the mercy of God from others?

Steve Pable: Living Faith

A Prayer for 911

Lord of Mercy, Prince of Peace,

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

This day does not pass in the calendar without our remembering. We remember images of death and destruction. Images that human eyes were never meant to see. We remember words our ears were never meant to hear, the tender last words of husbands and wives who would never embrace again.

We imagine the feeling of emptiness in the arms of children who at the end of the day could not find mom or dad for their welcome home hug. We remember our own feelings of emptiness as our sense of security, as our own confidence in the predictable order of life and work was radically shaken.

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

We remember the heroism of the many that lost their lives in saving others. We remember all those who suffered and died, we grieve for them still, friends and strangers alike, along with their families and friends.

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of
memory.

And it is right that it should not pass from our memory. But today and in this prayer, along with our remembrance of profound loss, it also seems right that we give voice to our deep longing for peace, and with this prayer, commit ourselves to those actions that will draw us closer to our most ancient and most holy desire, peace among all God's children.

*Dona nobis pacem.
Lord, grant us peace*

St. Francis Prayer
to Discern God's Will

Said Before a Crucifix

Most High, glorious God, enlighten the darkness of
my heart, and give me
right faith,
certain hope,
and perfect charity,
wisdom and
understanding, Lord,
that I may carry
out your holy and true
command. Amen.

The Daily Prayer For Priests
by St. Therese of the Child Jesus

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
for your unfaithful and tepid priests;
for your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields.
for your tempted priests;
for your lonely and desolate priests;
For your young priests;
for your dying priests;
for the souls of your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to you
the priests dearest to me:
the priest who baptized me;
the priests who absolved me from my sins;
the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood
in Holy Communion;
the priests who taught and instructed me;
all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially ...).
O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart,
and bless them abundantly in time
and in eternity. Amen.

There is always,
always, always something to be thankful for.

Rosary Daily*
